

BREAD PRODUCTION SUPERVISOR

ABOUT US:

Our core purpose is to nourish the body and soul of the community by providing superior artisan baked goods, using only the highest quality ingredients. We do this with passion, integrity, innovation, and authenticity. We are committed to being environmentally and socially responsible while maintaining the highest respect for our employees, customers, and business partners. We are the largest artisan bakery in the Pacific Northwest with a large variety of artisan breads, pastries and desserts. We are growing rapidly and are seeking individuals with the kind of energy, passion and dedication to help us on our quest to expand our product lines into new markets.

ROLE DESCRIPTION:

- Monitor the work flow to ensure bread is made to product specifications, on time and all orders are fulfilled while minimizing waste
- Oversee bread production staff, directing, coaching and ongoing training
- Provide feedback on staff performance
- Help with the hiring and training of new employees
- Work with managers in the design, development and implementation of programs to help control/reduce costs
- Assist with quality control programs to safeguard product quality
- Conduct internal audits to ensure compliance with FDA, OSHA and GMPs

- Ensure adherence to policies and procedures, including GMPs, safety and company handbook

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Demonstrated ability to supervise and mentor hourly production staff
- Good working knowledge of bakery production equipment and process controls
- Minimum 2 years in a supervisor role with hands-on bakery experience
- All around experience with wide variety of artisan bread dough in all phases of the production process
- Ability to work in a fast paced environment
- Willingness and ability to resolve problems identify areas of improvement and offer solutions
- Proven customer service skills
- Positive and professional communication skills
- Competent computer knowledge

To apply please send a copy of your resume in Word format, or paste in the body of your email with "supervisor" in the subject line.